3. Talk by Mlle. Lormant.

Mlle. Georgette Lormant, of Paris, has kindly offered to give a talk on the subject of her recent thesis on Fernand Fabre and George MacDonald, Two Novellists for our Time.

This will take place at 58A Westbourne Park Villa's, London, W2, on Friday 17th February at 7.30 pm. All members are invited with their friends but please notify Freda Levson on 01 221 0842, if you can come as wine and biscuits will be provided.

4. Relations with other societies

We are hoping to arrange an exchange of information with other societies so that members of each may learn of the others' activities and functions. The Dorothy Sayers Society (Chairman: Col. R. Clarke, Roslyn House, Witham, Essex.) has arranged the following conventions:

1984- 22 July at Witham. Subject: DLS as playwright.

1985- 5 August at Oxford. Subject: Gaudy Night (& Murder at Pentecost): accommodation, including Saturday night dinner, at Somerville.

The 1662 Society (Secretary: Christine Denwood, Trinity Congregational Church. St. Matthews Road, London SW2. 01 274 5541): March 5th "The Story of Writing", by Donald Jackson. At above address 7.30 pm.

5. Talk by our Chairman

Phil Streeter, to the Oxford C.S. Lewis Society on "Introduction to the life and thought of George MacDonald". On Tuesday 22 May at 8.15 pm in the Fred Hood Room, Pusey House.

President: Ben Robertson of Baliol. It is hoped that members will try to attend.

By now all our members should have received the second volume of North Wind. If by any chance your copy has not reached you please let us know and I will forward another.

Our grateful [sic] thanks are due to Kathy Triggs for all her efforts on the editing of this volume. And to Freda Levson for her expert negotiations with our printers.

To Mrs Levson must go the thanks of us all for her long period of "Acting" Hon. Secretary, a post she held with great enthusiasm and indeed determination. The committee is sad to lose her but we hope that she will continue to give us all moral support.

Bill Raeper is our new secretary and we welcome him to the fold and hope that he will enjoy himself.

The Rev. Geoff Pearson, Redeemer Vicarage, 200 Old Bank Lane, Blackburn, BB1 2HU. Tel. 0254 52782, has asked us to help find copies of the following books by MacDonald. If you can help, please contact him direct as above.
