Turning Responsibility Into Powerful Service

The TRIPS Program offers alternative break trips to help students serve, learn, live responsibly, seek wisdom, and understand differences.

22,317 hours served in the last 5 years!

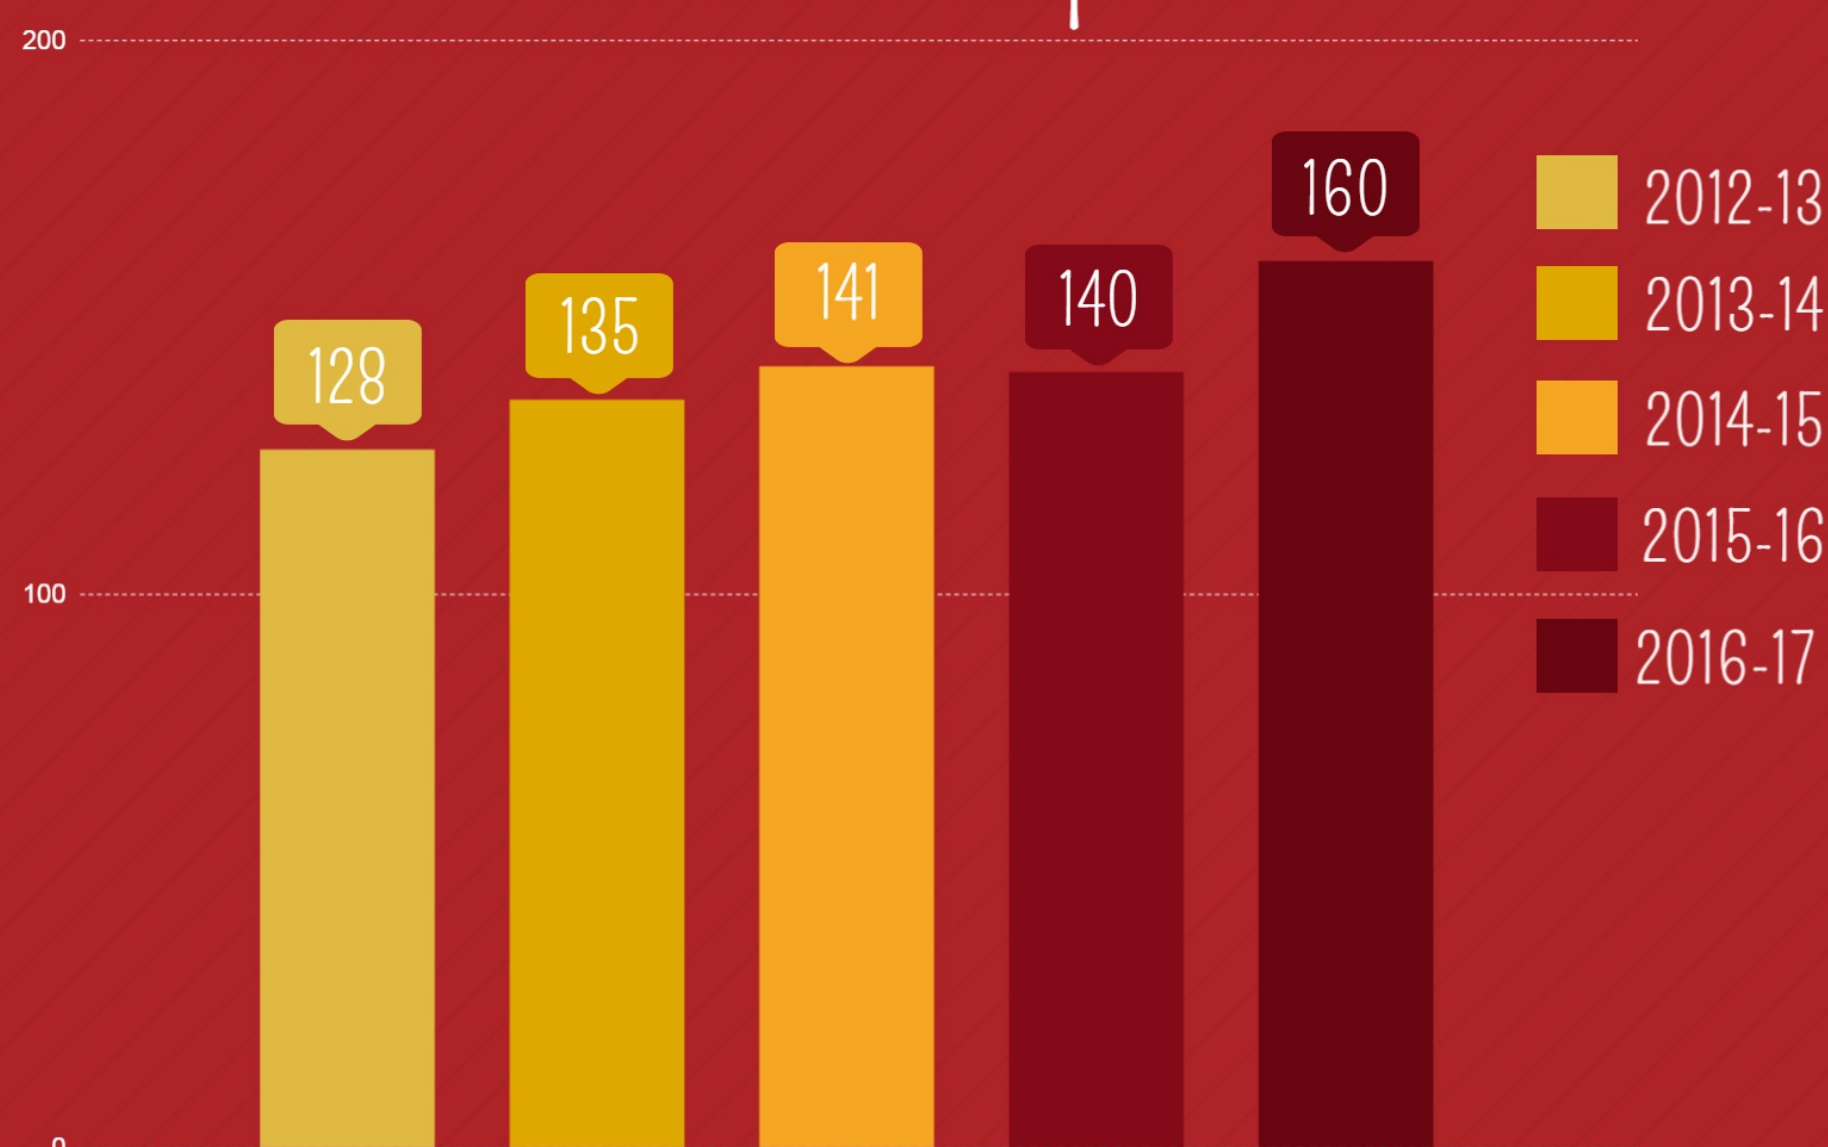

"We have so many misconceptions and stereotypes in today's society that we, as a whole, must actively work to abolish."

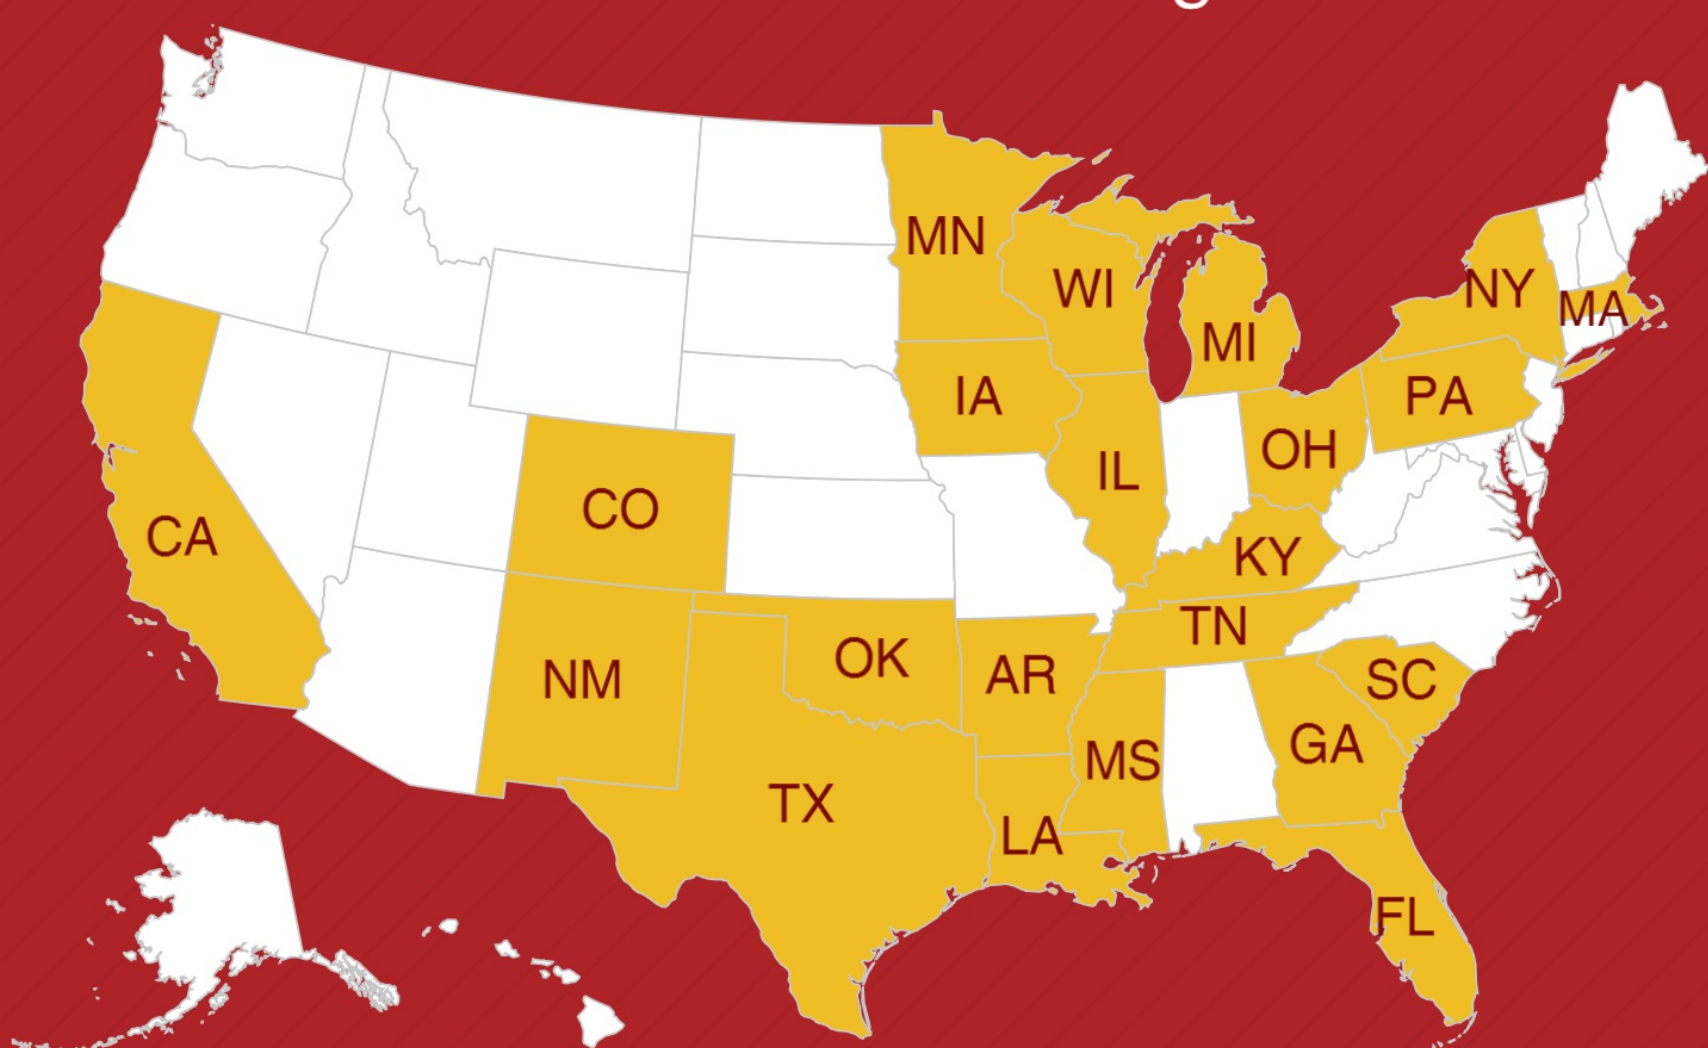

"I learned what it means to love somewhere where they are at. By making myself available to people who need to be heard, I can better inform others outside of the issue on what can be done to help and why the issue is important."

Domestic Destinations Through the Years

"Whatever your gift is use it generously, unapologetically, and with humility. The gift and personal action contributes to something larger."
