Emily Hacker is a Music Liberal Arts major with a Psychology minor from Oconomowoc, WI. During her time at SNC, she has participated in Chamber Singers, Concert Choir, Bell Choir, and Music Ministry at Old St. Joe's. She studies in the voice studio of Linda Feldmann and the piano studio of Elaine Moss. She is also the accompanist for several voice students on campus. In addition, Emily has appeared on stage in Knight Theatre's The Hunchback of Notre Dame and Legally Blonde. She also appeared as Hansel in St. Norbert Opera Workshop's production of Hansel and Gretel. Emily has also been involved in other areas on campus. She has been the co-president of Knights for Life for three years as well as a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Psi Chi honor societies. She would like to thank her family and friends for all of their love and support over the past four years.

Sarah Jensen, is a Psychology and French double major and Music minor from Wausau, WI. During her time at SNC, she has participated in Concert Band, Flute Choir, Music Ministry, and Bell Choir. She also studied in the flute studio of Dr. Kortney James for four semesters. Aside from music, Sarah has been a research assistant in the Developmental Decision-Making Lab and has worked as an RA in the housing department for three years. She has also been an active member of Psychology club, Oxfam, Dance Marathon, and NRHH. After graduation, Sarah will be moving to Illinois to earn her master's degree in Psychology at the University of Chicago. She would like to thank her friends and family for their constant support and for putting up with all the high notes over the years.

Connor Klavekoske, of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, will be graduating this May with a double major in Business Finance and Piano Performance. In his four years at St. Norbert College he has been involved in Jazz Ensemble, Chamber Singers, Concert Choir, Concert Band, Piano Ensemble, Bell Choir, Piano Lessons, Organ Lessons, has accompanied numerous vocal and instrumental students, and has been very active in the St. Norbert College Parish Music Ministry. He would like to thank his family, friends, and all his teachers for encouraging him to keep excelling and pursuing his love of music.

Maria Satnik of Altoona Wisconsin is a senior graduating with a double major in Physics and Computer Science and a minor in mathematics. She will be continuing her education with a Physics PhD in Nuclear and Accelerator Physics and is in the final stages of accepting an offer. At St Norbert she has participated in Bell Choir, Women's Chorus, Knightingales, music ministry at Old St. Joe's Parish and currently studying voice under Linda Feldmann. She has also been involved in many areas of campus, including President of the Society of Physics Students, President of Pi Mu Epsilon, Mathematics Honors Society, and Vice-president of Math Club. Maria would like to thank all the people in her life who have supported and pushed her forwards, especially her family, friends and professors.

Megan Schirger of Grafton, WI, will be graduating in May with a degree in Music Education with certification in choral and general music. In her time at St. Norbert College, she studied voice under Dr. Yi-Lan Niu and briefly in the piano studio of Elaine Moss. Megan has also been involved in Chamber Singers, Women's Chorus, Bell Choir, and Opera Workshop. Megan was also a member of Knightingales, a female acapella group, for two semesters. She was a member of the National Association for Music Education chapter here on campus for four years and even served as the president for one of these years. Over the past year, Megan has also served as an intern in music ministry at St. Norbert College Parish. She was also greatly honored to be inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society last spring, in which she has served as one of the student vice presidents for the chapter here on campus over the last year. Megan greatly enjoyed her first student teaching placement at Langlade Elementary and Sullivan Elementary, and is now enjoying her second placement at West De Pere Middle School. Megan would like to thank her family, friends, and the St. Norbert College Music Department for their ongoing support, encouragement, and guidance throughout the past four amazing years.
