Emily Brewer is a Music Performance major from Fond du Lac, WI. Emily has studied saxophone within the studio of Dr. John Salerno and is extremely excited to be attending graduate school at the University of Minnesota - Twin Cities to further her music education. While at St. Norbert College, Emily has been involved in various ensembles, including Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, Saxophone Ensemble, Pit Orchestra, and Concert Band. Other activities that she has participated in is NAFME, Knight Theater, and Omicron Delta Kappa. Emily is also a new member of the Society of Composers Incorporated and has thoroughly enjoyed her time composing at SNC. She would genuinely like to thank her family, friends, and professors for all their wisdom, support, and encouragement the past four years!

Tyler Butts is a senior from Mauston, WI and will be graduating with a degree in Biology (Organismal concentration) and Environmental Science. While at St. Norbert, Tyler has participated in Concert Band, Saxophone Quartet, and the Jazz Band. Aside from music, Tyler is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, and has conducted undergraduate research with Dr. Carrie Kissman. After graduation, Tyler will be pursuing a Ph.D at Iowa State University studying how food web structure informs lake restoration. He would like to thank his family and friends for all their support!

Jack Eckelaert is a senior from Appleton, WI graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry with a biology emphasis along with a music minor. Jack has been involved with many music groups on campus including the jazz band, wind ensemble, and concert choir. He also is a member of the Knights on Broadway and has been the percussionist for Knight Theatre the past 4 years. Jack would like to thank his family and friends for their endless support through his years at St. Norbert College.

Connor Klavekoske, of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, will be graduating this May with a double major in Business Finance and Piano Performance. In his four years at St. Norbert College he has been involved in Jazz Ensemble, Chamber Singers, Concert Choir, Concert Band, Piano Ensemble, Bell Choir, Piano Lessons, Organ Lessons, has accompanied numerous vocal and instrumental students, and has been very active in the St. Norbert College Parish Music Ministry. He would like to thank his family, friends, and all his teachers for encouraging him to keep excelling and pursuing his love of music.
