O wüsst' ich doch den Weg zurück

Johannes Brahms arr. by James
McCullough

Oh, if I only knew the road back, the dear road to the land of childhood! Oh, why did I search for happiness and leave my mother's hand?

Oh, how I long to be at rest, not awakened by anything, To shut my weary eyes, surrounded with gentle love!

And nothing to search for, nothing to beware of, only dreams, sweet and mild; Not to notice the changes of time, to be once more as child!

Oh, show me the road back, the dear road to childhood's land! In vain I search for happiness, around me is nothing But the deserted seashore and sand.

I am dark, but beautiful, O daughters of Jerusalem.
Therefore the King loved me, and brought me into his chamber And he said to me: Arise, my love, and come:
For now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers have appeared in our land, the time of renewal has come.

Song of Solomon 1:4-5; 2:10-12

Ständchen, Op.135
Schubert

Franz

Hesitant, quiet in the dark of the night's stillness,
we are here, and, our fingers softly bent,
gently, gently we knock at the beloved's chamber door.

And now growing, swelling, swelling, with one combined voice, loudly we call with confidence; Don't sleep when the voice of love speaks!

A wise man once looked near and far with a lantern for true humans;
how much more rare than gold are those people whom we like and find lovely? So, when friendship and love speaks, my friend - my love - don't sleep!

But what of all the riches could be as valuable as sleep?
So instead of words and instead of gifts you should now also have rest.
Just one more greeting, one more word; then our merry song for you falls silent. Quietly, quietly, we steal away, yes we steal away again!

Twenty years I served as a private, shot lead out of my gun,
Straight into the enemy's eyes, oh I did!
I shot ten enemies advancing into battle, then was hit myself.
I was found wounded at my enemy's hospital and they cured me there.
They gave me a white ticket and sent me home.
There I got a golden medal and a cross – that's good, not bad. I made some money out of it.

Deliver me, O Lord, from eternal death on that awful day,
When the heavens and the earth shall be moved:
When you will come to judge the world by fire.

I tremble, and I fear the judgment and the wrath to come,
When the heavens and the earth shall be moved.
The day of wrath, that day of calamity and misery; a great and bitter day, indeed. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them.

Deliver me, Lord, from eternal death on that awful day.
Deliver me, O Lord, when the heavens and the earth shall be moved; When you will come to judge the world by fire.

Deliver me, Lord, from eternal death on that awful day.
Deliver me.
