Parents Facebook Group Rocks!

The SNC Parents Group on Facebook is going strong. Started just a year ago, it already has more than 1,100 members. Participating in the group is a great way to connect with other parents, share experiences and find the answers to questions such as, "Did anyone else wonder what their student left to rot in their laundry hamper?" The group is open to parents of current and future SNC students – "graduated" parents are welcome, too!
