~ Senior Bios ~

Ben Schaefer, a senior from Sheboygan, Wisconsin, is graduating with a Music Education degree. In his time at SNC, Ben has been involved with both the Jazz and Wind Ensemble and will be heading off to student teach in January. He would like to thank his family, friends, and the amazing music faculty for supporting him throughout his journey at St. Norbert.

Esai E. Torres, a senior from Waukegan, IL, is a graduating Piano Major with a Music Education degree, Instrumental emphasis. He will be student teaching in the spring. In his time at SNC, Esai has been a part of the Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, and Piano Studio, playing piano and a variety of saxophones all four years. Outside of music, Esai has held multiple positions in his fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon, currently serving as the Brotherhood Chair. Esai would like to thank his family for supporting him throughout all his musical endeavors, thank you to his brothers in the fraternity for pushing him to become a better man, and thank you to his professors and peers in the music department for sharing their musical knowledge and experience that he'll be sure to share with others in his future career.

Mara Weis is a senior psychology major from Denmark, Wisconsin. Throughout her time at St. Norbert she has played the trumpet in both wind ensemble and jazz ensemble. Mara would like to thank the amazing friends she made through the music program for making rehearsals so much fun.

Nolan Ystesund is a senior from Cedarburg, WI, majoring in Business Finance and minoring in Data Analytics and Economics. He has played with the jazz band and wind ensemble. Outside of music, he is a member of the fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon. He would like to thank Dr. High, and the SNC staff throughout his years as a student.
