St. Norbert hosts 21st annual Pi Mu Epsilon Regional Undergraduate Math Conference

Snowball fights will never be the same again, report freshman mathematicians Amie Arnoldussen and Beth Holt. They learned snowflake theory and much more at last month's undergraduate math conference on campus, an event which drew student presenters from across the Midwest. >>>MORE

Alum's trip to Gulf Coast brings shift in perspective

The small irritations of daily life back home faded into insignificance for Kim (Lopas) Sullivan '95 after she witnessed firsthand the devastation wrought by Hurricane Katrina - and had the chance to play a part in recovery efforts. >>>MORE

Motivational speaker Richard Flint to speak on workplace cooperation

We learn to work together toward a shared goal in kindergarten. Yet people often lose their focus on the greater good in the workplace in favor of personal agendas. Motivational speaker Richard Flint will bring attendees full circle at his seminar in January. >>>MORE

The perfect fit

A niche on the front elevation of Main Hall that has stood empty for more than 100 years now houses an exalted tenant. Thanks to the generosity of a contractor, a statue of Mary, the Blessed Virgin, was safely lifted into place this fall. >>>MORE

Christmas treats at St. Norbert

Sparkling trees. A manger. Holiday music. It's Christmas time at St. Norbert College, and traditional entertainments are eagerly anticipated. >>>MORE

Listen to St. Norbert hockey games on the web

St. Norbert hockey fans can now follow the Green Knights via streaming audio on the web. Tim Derozier '95 will provide play-by-play commentary for the games. >>>MORE
