Education Power Workshops
give local children pre-college experience

A 12-day summer workshop that offers multicultural enrichment and new opportunities has its middle-school participants thrilled to be on a college campus. >>MORE

A last-minute transfer and a life-changing experience

It's mid-summer – do you know where you're headed for college? One transfer student found the perfect fit at St. Norbert and, a week later, was ready to start the new academic year. >>MORE

A search for St. Norbert

Hospitality at Norbertine abbeys in the Czech Republic, Austria, Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands made possible this year's Heritage Tour, and gave Nina Nolan '07 the chance to blog from across Europe. >>MORE

Deciphering the Earth's past calls for rock-steady nerve

Geological fieldwork is inherently dangerous and, over the years, Elizabeth Gordon has had more adventures than most – all in the name of science. >>MORE

Summer experience introduces students to

Jose De Pierola and Adit del Aguila, on campus as part of the Visiting Scholars Program, will discuss the challenges facing Peru in terms of their fields of study – water uses and natural and imported medicine. The couple will discuss their careers and achievements with Michael Marsden (Academic Affairs).

Weddings keep alums connected to campus

Couples who choose to have their wedding at St. Norbert find that every amenity they need for their special day can be taken care of in one picturesque setting. >>MORE

This month's question:

Christine Donovan '07 writes, "Abbot Pennings, when I was a student, there was a white squirrel on campus. Is it still around?" Read the answer

Feel free to write the abbot at askabbot@snc.edu with your questions about the college. He'll be sure to respond, and he will post his favorite questions.
